Safe Harbor Statements

Under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995

This presentation contains, in addition to historical information, "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the "safe harbor" provisions of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements, including statements under "First Quarter 2017 Guidance", "CapEx Summary" and the statements contained in the quotes of our CEO are based on SMIC's current assumptions, expectations and projections about future events. SMIC uses words like "believe," "anticipate," "intend," "estimate," "expect," "project," "target" and similar expressions to identify forward looking statements, although not all forward-looking statements contain these words. These forward-looking statements are necessarily estimates reflecting the best judgment of SMIC's senior management and involve significant risks, both known and unknown, uncertainties and other factors that may cause SMIC's actual performance, financial condition or results of operations to be materially different from those suggested by the forward-looking statements including, among others, risks associated with cyclicity and market conditions in the semiconductor industry, intense competition in the semiconductor industry, SMIC's reliance on a small number of customers, timely wafer acceptance by SMIC's customers, timely introduction of new technologies, SMIC's ability to ramp new products into volume, supply and demand for semiconductor foundry services, industry overcapacity, shortages in equipment, components and raw materials, availability of manufacturing capacity, financial stability in end markets, orders or judgments from pending litigation, intensive intellectual property litigation in semiconductor industry, general economic conditions and fluctuations in currency exchange rates.

In addition to the information contained in this presentation, you should also consider the information contained in our other filings with the SEC, including our annual report on Form 20-F filed with the SEC on April 25, 2016, as amended on December 9, 2016, especially in the "Risk Factors" section and such other documents that we may file with the SEC or The Hong Kong Stock Exchange Limited ("SEHK") from time to time, including current reports on Form 6-K. Other unknown or unpredictable factors also could have material adverse effects on our future results, performance or achievements. In light of these risks, uncertainties, assumptions and factors, the forward-looking events discussed in this presentation may not occur. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date stated or, if no date is stated, as of the date of this presentation. Except as may be required by law, SMIC undertakes no obligation and does not intend to update any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

About Non-Generally Accepted Accounting Principles ("Non-GAAP") Financial Measures

During this presentation, references to financial measures of SMIC will include references to non-GAAP financial measures, including non-GAAP operating expenses and adjusted EBITDA margin. For an explanation to the most directly comparable GAAP financial measures, see today's earnings release.

- Revenue increased by 5.2% QoQ from $774.8 million in 3Q16 to $814.8 million in 4Q16 mainly due to 1) an increase in wafer shipments in 4Q16 excluding LFoundry and 2) the revenue contributed from LFoundry (LFoundry only contributed for 2 months in 3Q16 as the Company acquired its 70% interest on July 29, 2016).
- R&D expenses increased by $36.4 million QoQ to $118.3 million in 4Q16, compared to $81.9 million in 3Q16. Excluding the funding of R&D contracts from the government, R&D expenses increased by $49.5 million QoQ to $141.0 million in 4Q16. The change was mainly due to higher level of R&D activities in 4Q16. Funding of R&D contracts from the government was $22.7 million in 4Q16, compared to $9.6 million in 3Q16.
- General and administrative expenses increased by 71.9% to $60.9 million in 4Q16, compared to $35.4 million in 3Q16. The increase was mainly due to accrued employee bonus in 4Q16.
